Use today's words that make a sentence.

How about you which baseball team's uniform seems to be good in MLB? I like the jersey of the New York Yankees. I think you can wear it comfortably regardless of gender. It is unisex.

Managers do not have a monopoly on stress.

Everyone has stress.

What is you are big stress?

I can't mind control. I can't go forward or backward. I feel like I've lost touch with reality. I dislike doing everything, just all stop. After all, am I this remote? The lie is a problem's start. I don't fix it. So, I'm being punished now. This is a monologue alone. And it's true. Maybe I can't go outside.

Bisexual love seems to have increased these days. I don't know if the numbers have increased or if their self-esteem has risen and is being released. I'm in favor of same-sex marriage, too. I don't know what's social ethics. Isn't diversity the first virtue of society? When I was young, I walked hand in hand with my close friends regardless of gender, but not now. As an adult, I don't think ethical consciousness is the result of being taught. Everything is culture's footmark. Society continues to do so.

That's it for today. I'm sleepy.

I will continue to write English sentences tomorrow.
